of posts in accordance with the spirit of the Constitution (77th Amendment) Act.

8. The Commission recommends that the top administrative authorities should be much more vigilant and responsive in this regard to ensure that the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes employees are not harassed and humiliated in any way.

9. The Commission feels that the Liaison Officers should be provided with all possible assistance by the Ministries/Departments/PSEs to enable them to work more effectively to ensure adequate representation of SCs/STs in services/posts at the earliest. The Department of Personnel & Training should conduct orientation training programme for the Liaison Officers as frequently as possible.
